Stories on the Road.

Commercial Travellers as a World's Fair—Something to Pull in a Grip Sack.

"Gentlemen, I almost envy you the positions you fill, your experience of the world, your knowledge of business, the changing sights you see, and all that, you know."

This warmly expressed regret fell from the lips of an elderly pleasure tourist, last August, and was addressed to a specimen of commercial humanity seated on the porch of the Lindell Hotel St. Louis, Mo.

"Yes," responded a New York representative of the profession, "a drummer, isn't without his pleasures, but he runs his risks, too—risks outside the chances of railroad collisions and steamboat explosions."

"What risks for instance?"

"This, for instance," said Mr. W. D. Franklin, who was then traveling for an Eastern house, and is known to merchants in all parts of the country. "The risk—which, indeed, amounts almost to a certainty—of getting the dyspepsia from perpetual change of diet and water. I was suffering from it when I started for sailing and sleeping. Myself was an example: I say was, for I am all right now."

"No discount on your digestion?" broke in a Chicago dry goods traveler, laughing, but quite serious.

"Not a quarter per cent. But I had to give up travelling for a while. The dyspepsia racked me up terribly. I came across an advertisement of PARKER'S TONIC. I tried it and it fixed me up to perfection. There is nothing on earth, in my opinion, equal to it as a cure for dyspepsia."

Messrs. Hiscox & Co., of New York, the proprietors, hold a letter from Mr. Franklin stating that same fact. PARKER'S TONIC not only cures Malarial Fevers, Heartburn, Headache, Coughs and Colds, and all chronic diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, but is a luxury in all cases. Price $1, and $1. Economy in size.

An Interview.

A very well known man that of Matthew Rankin, of Fewistown. He is now after years of ingondizing, right at sufferer under injudicious doctoring of disease. In the summer of 1879 he was a ruggedy boy. He was full and it school with both the game. In thirty three years of his life and in his childhood he came to grief by spoonfeed instead. He has a combination of poisons by which he looks out of the window without moving his head. He is complaining and a Christian. He is now suffering with agonies of kidney complaint, he says he like the rest was one of infancy.

Confirmation.

John Williment, of New Gloucester, celebrated his eighty first birthday by walking it that place, Monday.

Monday morning was the wagon of the Globe Lead Company was passing through Quincy street. Portland, and it was driven directly in front of the wagon was took. Edward Dickson, an old man, was driving the wagon at the time and stopped his horse, placed the boy and carried him into the house, and then drove with all speed for a doctor. The wagon struck a hard gash in the boy's head and the cellar bone was broken by the wheels.

Church Biographical sketch of the late Rufus L. Soule, engraved in the Bowdoin Orient, by Dr. Sewall was born in Thomaston, Me., and was graduated at Phillips Exeter Academy, and at Bowdoin College, from which he got graduated in 1818. In 1822 he returned to Exeter as one of the corps of instructors, and labored in that institution for over fifty years, having been principal from 1838 to 1873, when he resigned on account of ill health. He was one of the trustees who governed by making his pupils to govern themselves. He put his trust in honor and they rarely disappointed him. Few of Bowdoin's many distinguished graduates have been more universally esteemed and respected.

Somerset

The adjourned meeting of Fairfield Village Corporation was held Monday, to see if the corporation would purchase a force pump and hydrants. The vote stood 109 in favor of and 110 against purchasing. The check list was used and every man was civilly treated. The doings of the former meeting reported in some of the papers, were greatly overstated. Monday the sum of $3,000 was voted to build new and to repair the old reservoir, and to purchase 7,000 feet more hose for the steam fire engine. This will make in all 3,600 feet of hose for the steamer, as there are now 3,600 feet.

Fire was discovered last Saturday morning in the stables belonging the house occupied by John F. Preston, of Madison. Before help could arrive the fire was beyond control, but by hard work the house was saved, though badly injured inside, by those closing in. The furniture was badly damaged also by the rain. A heifer, three pigs, some hay, and quite an amount of phosphate was lost. Loss about $600. Partly insured.

The Eastern State Fair.

[Somerset Reporter.]

We understand that the managers of the Eastern Maine Fair at Bangor, are arranging to hold the best exhibition of horses, cattle, farm productions and articles of domestic manufacture ever held in the State. Ample provision will be made to give every exhibitor opportunity and space to show his stock, manufactured articles, or whatever else may be of interest and benefit to the State. As last year, the most liberal graded premiums will be offered for the best, in graded horses, cattle, sheep, swine, fowls, household fabrics, &c., &c. The Fair ground, the track and buildings to be improved, put in better condition and made attractive. An extensive annex to the Grand Stand, two hundred feet long and twenty of more wide, is to be constructed for the exhibition of farm productions, which will give the farmer plenty of room to show what can be produced from the soil.

The success of the Fair last fall has aroused many of the leading farmers in Eastern Maine to the important bearings upon the improvement of stock, and stimulated them to take hold of this matter at once.

Our sheep breeders will be glad to learn that in the making up of premiums they have not been forgotten. Separate premiums will be offered for registered sheep, also liberal premiums for graded sheep, and three for heaviest fleece of wool. A special premium will also be offered for best calf raised by boy under fifteen years of age. The premium list, which will be out in a few days, offers $10,000 for the products of our farmers. The entire list of premiums will be paid on the closing day of the Fair and no premium fee will be charged.

This is an opportunity our farmers cannot afford to miss. It is sure to be a great success.

The New Silk Industry

THE RESULT OF THE COMPETITION FOR THE SILK CULTURE PREMIUMS.

[From Public Opinion (per Mail) 1884.]

The chief attraction at the silk culture exhibition at Horticultural Hall last night, was the awarding of premiums by Strawbridge & Clothier for the best silk cocoons raised in the United States during 1883. The premiums were awarded on the basis of the quality and quantity of reeled silk yielded by each 100 cocoons. There were seventy seven entries from twenty States for the premiums, which amounted to $450.

Mr. Clarkson Clothier in awarding the premiums said:

I commend those competitors who secured the award of the third annual premiums offered by Strawbridge & Clothier for the silk culture of the United States through the Women's Silk Culture Association of Philadelphia. On the first occasion, the number of competitors was twenty six from four States; on the second occasion the number was thirty three, from eleven States; and now we have seventy seven competitors from twenty States.

It is said that to secure the best results of any industry in the country it must be localized. Such has been the history of the silk industry in the last three years. It has localized wonderfully. From the centre of the country competitors sometimes come to the front.

The industry is developed mostly fully in California, to which State the first premium was awarded last year, and the South and East may be said to be laying hold of the work. The fact is developed that cocoons can be produced in paying quantities the product bringing 50c to 75c to have these reeled in spite of quantities to keep pace with the supply. There being no steam filatures in this section of the country, and that being the case in declining in degree to the loom as I know. To encourage this important manufacture and the industry, the first of September will be brought to the city of Philadelphia, and will be conducted in a manner which I now running successfully in this hall. By this means the enthusiasm of development of the silk from the worm through the successive stages of the cocoon, the reeled silk and the woven fabric becomes a matter of personal interest and we see that silk culture, which seems only time to become a great industry, is successfully being illustrated in all its stages in this competition at the present.

This is a state of affairs that is especially gratifying to every citizen, and while we cannot estimate the importance of these results that is attained, it must not be forgotten that to the fostering care and patriotic work of the members of the Women's Silk Culture Association the result is largely due. Let us remember this and in this honoring these ladies whose far sighted wisdom has foreseen these results, and who so well directed energies have produced them we shall thus be giving their due to whom honor is due."

First premium of $100, to Miss Wood, Ston Pemberton, N. J. There were 260 cocoons to the quarter pound, and the yield in reeling 1 21-100 ounces of silk, and 2 70-100 ounces of waste. One hundred cocoons yielded 7o-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. White mulberry was used in feeding the worms.

Second premium of $75, to Messrs. Rivaire & Muntz, Union Hill, Cal. There were 166 cocoons to the quarter pound and the yield in reeling 1 15-100 ounces of silk and 2 87-100 ounces of waste. One hundred cocoons yielded 68-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. White mulberry was used in feeding the worms.

Third premium, of $60, to Miss S. H. Williams, Riverton, N. J. There were 174 cocoons to the quarter pound and the yield in reeling 1 7-100 ounces of silk, and 2 93-100 ounces of waste. One hundred cocoons yielded 63-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. Osage orange was used in feeding the worms.

Fourth premium, of $45, to Miss Anna M. Muntz, San Jose, Cal. There were 185 cocoons to the quarter pound, and the yield in reeling 1 53-100 ounces of silk, and 2 85-100 ounces of waste. One hundred cocoons yielded 58-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. White mulberry was used in feeding the worms.

Fifth premium, of $30, to Miss Chas. Lewis, Virginia, Mo. There were 201 cocoons to the quarter pound, and the yield in reeling was 1 7-100 ounces of silk, and 2 93-100 ounces of waste. 100 cocoons yielded 53-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. Osage orange was used in feeding the worms.

Sixth premium, of $30, to Mrs. George Derr, Germantown, city. There were 170 cocoons to the quarter pound, and the yield in reeling was 0 2-100 ounces of silk, and 1 8-100 ounces of waste. 100 cocoons yielded 54-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. White mulberry was used in feeding the worms.

Seventh premium of $40 to Mrs. W. Hayes, Chester, Pa. There were 208 cocoons to the quarter pound, and the yield in reeling was 1 11-100 ounces of silk and 2 89-100 ounces of waste. 100 cocoons yielded 52-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. White mulberry was used in feeding the worms.

Eighth premium, of $30, to Mrs. Augostirla, Philadelphia. There were 236 cocoons to the quarter pound, and the yield in reeling was 1 23-100 ounces of silk and 2 77-100 ounces of waste. 100 cocoons yielded 52-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. White mulberry was used in feeding the worms.

Ninth premium of $25, to Mrs. Anna Husted, Liberty, Ind. There were 182 cocoons to the quarter pound, and the yield in reeling was 96-100 of an ounce of silk and 3 4-100 ounces of waste. 100 cocoons yielded 53-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. Osage orange was used in feeding the worms.

Tenth premium, of $10, to Miss M. B. Lowery, Portsmouth, Ohio. There were 233 cocoons to the quarter pound, and the yield in reeling was 1 13-100 ounces of silk and 2 87-100 ounces of waste. One hundred cocoons yielded 50-100 of an ounce of reeled silk. Osage orange and white mulberry were both used in feeding the worms.

The association has prepared a memorial to Congress indorsing the bill providing for the creation of a silk culture bureau and establishing silk culture stations under the direction of the National Government.

Republican National Convention.

AT CHICAGO, JUNE 3d, 1884.

WASHINGTON D. C., D. C. 1883
National Republican Committee will meet at Washington on Tuesday January 22d 1884 at 12 o'clock M. for the purpose of calling a convention of delegates to be chosen by the several States entitled to representation in said convention and fixing the time and place for holding the same.

In accordance with the usage of the party the Committee recommends that the electors of the several States who are in favor of electing and supporting at the next election for President and Vice President candidates who are in favor of protecting and extending the just rights of labor, free popular education and all other measures calculated to secure to the people equal rights and privileges, and who are in favor of honest elections by the people, secured by the use of the ballot, effectual protection to every citizen in the full enjoyment of all his rights of person and property, and who are in favor of such legislation as will secure to the people of the several States the benefit of the constitutional provision that the citizens of each State shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States, and who are in favor of the enforcement of the constitutional rights of all citizens of the United States to vote in the States and Territories where they may reside, and who are in favor of such an amendment to the constitution as will secure the choice of President and Vice President by a direct vote of the people, should be represented in the convention to be chosen as aforesaid by delegates equal in number to the Senators and Representatives in Congress to which the several States are entitled, and that the basis of representation in said convention be one delegate at large from each State, and one delegate from each Congressional district thereof, and two delegates from each Territory and the District of Columbia, and that the delegates be chosen in the several States, Territories and the District of Columbia at such time and in such manner as the Republicans thereof may determine.

The committee further recommends that the convention be held at the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, on Tuesday, June 3, 1884, at 12 o'clock noon.

The basis of representation in the convention will be as follows:

Total 820

Under the call of 1880 the number of votes was 756, and the number necessary to a choice was 379. Under the call of 1884 the number of votes will be 820, and the number necessary to a choice will be 411.

By order of the committee.

WM. E. CHANDLER, Chairman.
JAMES A. SCOTT, Secretary.

THE WALL STREET CRASH.

Fiske & Hatch go Under,

But the Metropolitan Bank Resumes

And a Better Feeling Prevails.

Generally Thought the Crisis is Over.

NEW YORK, May 15. Comparatively quiet reigns in the Stock Exchange. It becomes more apparent every moment that the crisis is past.

A New Bank President.

The resignation of George [illegible] President of the Metropolitan National Bank has been accepted and Vice President Henry C. Jaques has been elected President. Manager Camp reports that the deposits of the bank have all been effected.

The Metropolitan Bank.

The Metropolitan Bank is paying out to all depositors presenting checks, even before the hour named for resumption. The paying teller stood the window at noon. The number in line was about twenty-five. Only one lady was among the list, she being attired in widow's weeds. Her gratification on receiving her money was plainly visible. It is stated that this morning the Bank of Commerce was this morning a debtor to the Clearing House to the amount of over $1,000,000. Money is now loaning at 1¼ to 1½ per cent premium per diem.

Notice from Fiske & Hatch.

Late this evening Messrs. Fiske & Hatch handed the following notice to an associated press representative:

To our depositors and other creditors:

It is with great sorrow we are obliged to announce to you our suspension, which has been brought about by a combination of circumstances. The long continued decline in the market prices of securities, even the very best, accompanied by a general weakening of confidence in financial matters, together with the heavy drawings of deposits are the principal causes of our unfortunate position. We can only request those having claims against us to extend to us such consideration and forbearance as we may need, and it may be in their power to grant.

Trouble in the Oil Market.

There has been a semi-panic in oil in this city. The failure of Fiske & Hatch and the suspension of Bradford, Clark, Inc. created a distressful feeling. It is rumored that several heavy capitalists interested in, are in trouble. At 3 P. M. to-day oil was selling at 83 but before the close it broke to 73 and is now offered on the street at 72. No failures have been announced, and if any body has gone under it will be given out to-morrow when the clearing is made.

Brooklyn Banks.

The closing of the doors of the Atlantic State Bank, Brooklyn, has caused a feeling of uneasiness among the business men. President Butler stated last night that the bank would resume business to-day as their securities were all good and the suspension was caused solely by an effort to help the Metropolitan Bank. There was a gathering of depositors this morning at the bank, but they were unable to get money and were very well pleased to consequence. President Butler assured them that it will be all right and that they would lose nothing. He promised to have a statement for publication reads this afternoon. The run seems to have extended to several of other banks in Brooklyn, and well filled large quantities of money were drawn out of the savings banks. They were prepared for the run, however, and many of them were by no means disturbed by the withdrawal of some of the surplus deposits. They save thousands of dollars in interest, which would be due to depositors in June next.

There was a run this morning on the Irish Emigrant Savings Bank in Chambers street, about 200 of the depositors withdrawing their accounts. Most of the depositors belong to the laboring classes. President Hogarth said the bank would pay about $10,000 to the withdrawers. Wm. H. Sweeny, banker, of 104 Nassau street, made an assignment without preference. His amount involved is publicly said to be large.

Bank of Commerce all Right.

The statement that the Bank of Commerce was in debt to the Clearing House to the amount of $1,600,000 is an error as the bank was a creditor for the Clearing House of over $280,000, which was paid in cash with the exception of $100,000 in new bank certificates.

The Metropolitan.

Geo. I. Seney has conveyed to the Metropolitan Bank property valued at $1,000,000, and will advance still more, if necessary, to protect the bank. It is not supposed by those intimately acquainted with the bank's affairs that the losses will approach this sum.

A Broker Thinks the Worst is not Yet.

A prominent broker said this evening in regard to Fiske & Hatch, the position of the firm is very peculiar, owing to the fact that they have only Government bonds and cannot borrow money on them, except at the most exorbitant rate of interest. For some time past they have been trying to sell government and failed. Wednesday they borrowed $500,000 on government and paid 2½ per cent interest in a day. This loan even was only allowed to stand one day and to-day when other loans were being called in they saw it was useless to continue the struggle and suspended. They will have plenty of company soon in fact we may have another "Black Friday."

EFFECT AT OTHER POINTS.

In Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 15. The financial condition of business in this city is sound and no apprehension of trouble is felt.

In Norwich, Conn.

NORWICH, Conn., May 15. No trouble whatever is caused here by to-day's developments in New York. The banks are all perfectly sound.

Feeling in England.

LIVERPOOL, May 15. The effect of the New York panic was scarcely noticeable upon the cotton exchange. Somewhat more than usual is offered for sale but not on American account. In the grain trade merchants are awaiting events, and so far the impression of the panic has been slight. Provisions are selling more freely principally on Chicago account and merchants are awaiting developments. At Manchester a feeling of steadiness prevails though operators are cautious. The feeling at both Liverpool and Manchester is that the worst is over.

Failure of a Boston House.

BOSTON, May 15. F. F. Hawley & Co., of this city, who has been doing a banking and brokerage business, have suspended. They cannot give any statement of liabilities at present, but state that their suspension is due to a desire to ascertain just where they stand. They have been doing business on a basis of deposit, but this amount due depositors is not known. They express a hope of resuming business, but this is not considered probable. The house has been rated at about $100,000.

It is stated that deposits on account of Hawley & Co. at the time of their suspension amounted to $250,000, and that their total liabilities are $500,000. There are rumors that the concern has been speculating, but nothing authentic is yet known.

Hill & Sherwood, brokers, failed to-day for $10,000. Their suspension is not significant.

Assignee Appointed—A Bad Failure.

H. R. Mandal has been appointed assignee of all the property, accounts and business of F. A. Hawley & Co., without preferences. Mr. Hawley in an interview this afternoon acknowledged that his failure is a very bad one and that almost everything is gone, and that resumption is impossible. The affairs of the firm he says are somewhat mixed and it will require several days before any statement of a definite character can be obtained. His liabilities he believes will not exceed $150,000. It is learned from reliable outside sources that the firm has lost heavily in Villard's, Gregory's, and Northern Pacific and have been dealing heavily in Mexican Central, Union Pacific and Atchison. Yesterday some of the customers defaulted their margins and this with a heavy run on their deposits led to the failure, which not only effects stock operators and speculators, but will reach many people of small means all over New England who have deposits with the firm.

At Portland.

PORTLAND, May 15. None of the banks or financial institutions in this city have had any losses by the failures in New York, and there is no anxiety here concerning the solvency of home establishments.

At Boston.

BOSTON, May 15. The feeling in financial circles here to-day is not any different from that of Wednesday. Considerable stock was thrown on the market, but that which had a value was quickly taken up again. The two failures of F. A. Hawley & Co. and Miles, Sherwood & Co. affected Boston men very little. There was general security in the banks and brokers offices, and no one seemed to doubt but that the banks would weather the storm unless it became much worse without any concealment. There was a little lunchtimes here and there, and there were lists of brokers firms which were no longer in existence. The notable feature of the situation is the freedom of Boston concerns from any entanglement with the falling firms in New York.

In the West.

ST. LOUIS, May 15. Considerable attention was attracted by the failure of O'Donnell, Lawson & Simpson. The firm has intimate relations with and is correspondent of nearly one hundred banks in Missouri, Kansas, thirty or forty in Texas, and has numerous connections in all the extreme Western States and territories. It is not known, of course, to what extent they are involved, but their indebtedness to the Western banks will run into the mil-

New York Banks.

WASHINGTON, May 15. A resolution was offered in the Senate by Mr. Morgan to-day which, under the rules, went over one day, directing the Committee on Finance to examine into the causes of the failure of such of the national banks in the city of New York as suspended business in May and report whether said failures have led to any and what extent resulted from any violation of law regulating their conduct, or from giving certificates upon drafts by their accompanies of drafts or other commercial paper drawn upon them directly or indirectly in evasion or violation of law, and whether the national banks in New York city have been engaged since July 12th, 1884 in violation of law in transactions regulating their conduct, and that the committee have leave to sit during the session of the Senate, to visit the city of New York, to send for persons and papers and examine witnesses on oath.

A Bill to Prevent Speculation.

The following is the text of the bill introduced by Senator Collom to-day to prevent speculation by officers of national banking associations: Be it enacted, etc., that it shall be unlawful for the president, cashier, teller, or other chief executive officer of any national banking association having a capital stock to the amount of $200,000, or more, to deal in trade or otherwise engage in speculation in stocks, bonds or other securities or in grain, provisions, produce or oil, or in gambling on his own personal profit, either directly or indirectly, or to give any partnership or other financial interest in the operation of any private banking or brokerage firm or business. Any such officer who violates the provisions of this act, or any person who aids or abets such officer in violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be imprisoned not less than one year nor more than five years, or fined not more than $10,000.

The Arctic Expedition.

Secretary Chandler has received a report from Lieut. Emory, commanding the Arctic steamer Bear under date of St. Johns, May 11, in which he says the ice conditions are considered favorable. Heavy gales have prevailed in the Arctic regions, as there is reason to believe, the ice will have begun motion toward the Sound sooner than usual. All the coal steamers report unusual quantities of ice all the Straits of Belle Island.

FIRE UNDERWRITERS.

Annual Meeting of the Board.

NEW YORK, May 15. The annual meeting of the Board of Fire Underwriters took place to-day. Thirty five companies were represented. President D. A. Heald said the destruction of property by fire during the year aggregated a loss of over $100,000,000, which was equal to $2 for each inhabitant. He thought some legal measures should be adopted to compel more caution. The average rate of premium has increased. The report of the committee on incendiarism showed a subscription to the reward fund of $110,431 by 124 companies. There have been 113 rewards, amounting to $38,150 offered, nine rewards, amounting to $1,000, were paid and ten convictions obtained. There are 880 fire-risk capital employed in fire insurance, an increase in the total premiums for the year of 89,86 078 and an increase in the losses paid of $4,989 583.

GRANT & WARD.

An Action Against the Receiver.

NEW YORK, May 15. The Supreme Court to-day granted an order giving the Chicago & Atlantic Railroad Company leave to prosecute an action against Receiver Julian L. Davies, jointly with other parties, for the purpose of obtaining relief to which they are entitled relating to notes or other securities heretofore belonging to the railroad company and held, negotiated or otherwise disposed of by the firm of Grant & Ward. The complaint makes Grant & Ward, St. John Hay & Co., J. W. Sellgman & Co., Drexel, Morgan & Co., P. W. Gallandet & Co., Reid & Smith, the Equitable Life Assurance Society, U. S., the Oriental Bank, Columbia Bank, New York, Lake Erie and Western Railway Company and other corporations and banks defendants. The company alleges that they deposited with Grant & Ward several million dollars worth of mortgage bonds as collateral for loans to them by Grant & Ward aggregating $1,500,000.

Grant & Ward they allege have used up these bonds and, putting them in parcels, have disposed of them for their own account. The company seeks to recover these bonds and to prevent Grant & Ward's receiver from disposing of such of the bonds as may remain unsold for the benefit of the assets of Grant & Ward.

A SOAP MAKER'S DELUSION.

He Wants to Buy New York City and Vara the Inland Into a Pleasure Garden.

NEW YORK, May 13. A Supreme Court commission has declared Benjamin Wallace to be of unsound mind. Mr. Wallace has long been a soap-maker, and his estate is estimated at $227,000. He disappeared about the 20th of last month and was found wandering at Conarsie, Brooklyn. There he went to the door of a poor fisherman, whom he astonished by announcement that he had purchased the property and had come to dispossess him. He was arrested and found later by his friends in Raymond street jail, Brooklyn. He was removed to Bloomingdale asylum. He was first adjudged to the doctors was a proposition to purchase the property. His disease has developed in him a desire to build on story flats and to buy half of New York, he already owning it in imagination, the other half, and to make of the whole island a grand pleasure garden. He is now in his fiftieth year.

MILL BURNED.

Operatives Severely Injured.

Loss Estimated $150,000.

WORCESTER, May 15. The most disastrous fire in Worcester for thirty years occurred to-night. A general alarm called the department to South Worcester, two miles from the city, where the Pakachoag mill, owned by George Crompton, was found in flames. The mill was of brick, about 270 feet long and some portions four stories high. It was used for the manufacture of woolen yarn, and was running day and night. The fire originated in the picker room and spread so rapidly that many of the operatives had to jump from the upper windows. The entire mill was destroyed and it was with the greatest difficulty the mills of the Worcester Carpet Company and the Wicks Manufacturing Company were saved.

The total loss is roughly estimated at $150,000 on which there was an insurance of $28,100 on the building and $84,000 on the stock and machinery. A score of operatives were more or less injured in jumping from the windows. Several of the wounded are likely to die and it is feared additional bodies will be found in the ruins, though no one is reported missing.

THE CHURCHES.

Notable Events of Church Meetings.

BALTIMORE, May 15. Bishop A. W. Wayman, presided to-day at the African Methodist Episcopal General Conference. The principle subject before the body was a discussion in regard to the commending of campmeetings by the General Conference. Out of a great number of speeches the very few were in favor of recommending camp meetings. Rev. S. J. Coppin said it was difficult to control the people when they were surrounded by the restraints of regular life but it was impossible when they were turned loose in the woods. People would often be converted in the woods who were not often seen in the church afterwards.

Conference at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15. The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church reassembled this morning. As the order of the day for ten o'clock was the election of bishops there was an unusually large attendance of spectators particularly in the upper galleries. After some preliminary business tellers were appointed and the balloting proceeded. Tellers appointed to conduct the election for bishops reported as the result of the first ballot that there had been no choice. A second ballot was then taken after which the conference took a recess.

On reconvening the tellers announced as a result of the second ballot for Bishops, Rev. Dr. W. F. Mallalieu of the Detroit Conference, President of the Garrett Biblical Institute and Rev. Dr. J. M. Mayfield, of the Western Book Concern, Cincinnati were elected. Another ballot was taken for two more Bishops but only one choice was made. Rev. Dr. W. Malden who declined elected. Another ballot was taken but resulted in no choice. The Conference then adjourned until 9 A. M.

At the evening meeting the result of the fifth ballot was announced to be that Rev. H. B. Fowler, D. D. was elected. This completes the number of new Bishops. Rev. W. L. Mallalieu is presiding elder of Boston District New England Conference and Rev. Dr. Fowler is a member of the Rock River Conference and Missionary Secretary of the General Missionary Society with his office in New York.

MADISON AVENUE CHURCH.

Rev. Dr. Newman not the Permanent Pastor.

NEW YORK, May 15. Judge Sedgwick of the Superior Court to-day rendered a decision in the suit involving an injunction against Rev. Dr. John R. Newman and the trustees of the Madison Avenue Congregational Church. He held that Dr. Newman's call to the permanent pastorate of the church and that the trustees should therefore be restrained from acting toward him as if he were such.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Gladstone's Party.

LONDON, May 15. There is much speculation as to the course which the Ministry will pursue in view of the small majority by which the adoption of the vote of censure was carried. Mr. Parnell evidently believes that the Ministers will be constrained to resign and he has issued orders for immediate preparations throughout Ireland for a general election which he pronounces imminent. The general opinion, however, is that the Government will cling to office, in such case it has not been absolutely defeated in the House of Commons. It is said that the dispatches at the Foreign Office are awaited with anxiety but opened with trembling fingers, because of well grounded apprehension that they may bring at any moment intelligence of such a disaster in the Soudan as might sweep Liberals out of power on a wave of irresistible public indignation.

Mr. Gladstone's Narrow Escape.

The Times in a leading editorial, says that the majority in favor of the Government on the censure motion does not represent the predominant and universal conviction of the country. The significant decrease in the support of Mr. Gladstone the Times says, conveys a warning that cannot possibly be ignored.

The Daily News in a leader discussing the debate in the House of Commons, says: "For the first time on record, Mr. Gladstone's pastoral fell dead upon the House and the public, and failed to produce even a semblance of conviction. The enchanter waved his wand in vain. It is to be hoped that Mr. Gladstone is now convinced that there are certain objects of English belief, reverence, honor and duty which are so firmly fixed in the national mind that even the potent spells of his eloquence cannot affect them."

A new steamboat company is to be established between Belfast and Islesboro on May 10th. Capt. Calvin Hatch of Islesboro, will command. Transit between Belfast and the west side of Islesboro making three trips per week. The Brunette is one of the small steamers built at Camden by Capt. Bramhall, and is fast and some little boat. She was in Bangor last year.

BOWDOIN ACADEMY ALUMNI. The annual meeting and banquet of the Bowdoin Academy Alumni took place at the Bowdoin Exchange on Tuesday evening. It was a brilliant affair and highly enjoyed by all concerned. The large dailors were thrown open, these having been previously arranged in a tasty and pleasant manner, the floral decorations being profuse. The bill of fare was choice and finely served. About twenty-five members of the alumni were present.

FROST PISCATAQUIS. The Piscataquis Observer says: Since Saturday the drive of Stratton, Haskell & Co. containing 1 000 000 feet, has been passing this place. The event caused some little interest among our citizens who have watched the drivers from the bridges in their struggle to free the logs from the ledges. The largest number of men employed on this drive was about 120 when they reached here there were about 100, 40 of whom were discharged Monday night. The logs are a nice lot, the majority of them being large and smooth.

THE CITY OF PORTLAND. The Rockland Courier-Gazette says that the machinery of the wrecked steamer will be saved, and possibly the hull can be floated and beached, and the copper upon it, worth some $800, saved. Mr. Hersey settles promptly for all wreckage found. Fifteen of the twenty missing trunks have been found. Over thirty of the forty bales of cotton on board have been picked up. There were 204 cases of tin bound to Eastport for canning purposes, which can be saved in a damaged condition. A large quantity of other freight has also been rescued, much of which can be used. The wheel-house and wheel drifted on and were found at Seal Cove. Singular to relate, it sustained no damage whatever, save the breaking of the windows.

TRANSFER OF VESSEL PROPERTY. Our Winterport correspondent writes: Capt. A. J. Crocker and others of this place recently purchased the brig James Miller at Belfast. She has a cargo of hay for Brunswick, Ga., and will load there with hard pine. She will be commanded by Captain Crocker.

BASE BALL. Our Colby correspondent writes: A game of base ball was played on the College campus yesterday, (Thursday,) between the Colby and Bellasts resulting favorably for the former. A large crowd was present and a close game expected. Both nines did excellent work in the field and with the bat. The pitching of Dewee a phenomenal feature. The Bellasts were out-played both in fielding and batting. Next Saturday the Colbys visit the Bowdoins at Brunswick when the first game in the championship series for $50 will be played. It is understood that both nines are in excellent trim and ready for the contest. The schedule comprises five games, of which two will be played this week with Bowdoin, two at Brunswick and the third game at Lewiston.

THE NEW STEAM FERRY BOAT. During the latter part of yesterday afternoon the new steam ferry boat Bon Ton arrived from Camden where she was built by Capt. Lewis Hall, of that place. The Bon Ton was launched on Tuesday last and on the photo this city was taken on board. The Brunette has been built by Capt. Brum Hall but somewhat larger size. After the style of the Bon Ton her cabins were given no thought of trial, the result being highly satisfactory. She is 30 feet long, 8 feet broad and 3 feet deep drawing 2½ feet of water. She is built of the best material and is a credit to every particular. Good material of Jo Rubish is oak and black walnut. Has no paint to her cabins except the outside. Her seats extend lengthwise and are of oak and have a capacity of thirty persons, there being ample standing room. Her deck is of hard pine and her forehead is an awning of pine supported by iron oak frame. Her chimney is first class and the craft is very speedy for her size. Her measurement being less than five tons. She is owned by Messrs. Leach & Burr and is to run between this city and Brewer in place of the row boats now in use. The slips will have to be remodelled before the steam ferry boat can run on her trips and the Bon Ton will not probably be running before June 1st.

AMUSEMENTS.

Last night there was a great jam at the rink and the throng was tumultuous. Miss Newhall pleased the audience by her skill on the rollers, and Prof. Cummings thoroughly captivated everybody by his wonderful evolutions on the floor. Owing to some members of the Norombegas Polo Club getting away the game which was announced to take place this evening between the Norombegas and Knickerbockers will be postponed and its place will be a polo contest between the High School Club and the Norombegas.

Joseph Jefferson.

A brilliant audience will be in attendance at the Opera House to-night, when Joseph Jefferson will appear as Caleb Plummer in "The Cricket on the Hearth" and Mr. Golightly in "Lend me Five Shillings." Some good seats are yet unsold. The engagement will close to-morrow with two performances of "Rip Van Winkle." Special excursion trains will be run to-morrow night from Dexter and Oldtown, and a party from Bucksport will attend the matinee.

Haworth's Literaries.

The sale of seats for this popular entertainment will open at the box office this morning. The entertainment consists of beautiful panoramic scenes of points of interest in the Empire State, enlivened by specialties by a good company of comedians and singers. Popular prices prevail.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Women's Temperance Crusade upon the death of Miss Annie D. Page, a member of the organization:

Whereas, Death has entered our circle and taken from us a loved and honored sister, therefore

Resolved, In the death of sister Annie D. Page the Crusade have lost an earnest, active and faithful worker, and the temperance cause a true friend, one who was willing to do what she could in the cause so dear to her heart, and to one can the words, "She hath done what she could," be better applied.

Resolved, That we shall ever cherish the memory of our sister's making it an incentive to more earnest effort, that when our life work is ended, it may be as perfect as was hers.

Resolved, That these resolutions be printed in the daily papers and also placed upon the records of the Crusade and a copy of the same sent to the family.

BANGOR AS IT IS

Facts Gleaned from the Reports of the Assistant Assessors.

The Assistant Assessors have finished their work and one of them has furnished us the following as part of the facts they have found. In the first place there has been a large increase in the acreage of grass lands. In the past few years many acres of waste lands have been cleared and drained and are now yielding a large amount of hay. Buildings have also been enlarged and repaired the ground around them improved and many new houses and barns erected and in process of construction while there is a constant demand for low priced rents. The improvements inaugurated in all parts of the city by the owners of property have long been felt in the way of adorning and making the Bangor of to-day far more attractive than the Queen City has ever been in past years.

The returns from the several wards show 417 horses and colts, 33 mules, 1 heifers, 1 081 sheep and 1 dogs, while there are but one thousand dogs but it is difficult to tell the owners. The Assessors report 212 births which is probably less than the fact. In Wards 2 and 3 the number of persons is given as follows: 2 851 in 2 and 2 977 in 3 and they recommended that next year the number be returned in all the wards. There is no doubt we think but there has been an increase of 500 since the census was taken as indicated by the returns from the two reported above, and if the Assistant Assessors should take pains to get a census of the population of our city could undoubtedly be obtained. There are 1 007 polls returned this season and 1 436 scholars the latter being a gain of some two hundred from last year.

It would be a class of persons who seem to find pleasure in rewarding about our city ready to sneer at every improvement and ridicule the city. Bangor is played out, dying out, and to death, the people move away, etc. It would not do if they should move away, as it would no doubt prove a blessing. Our city is not running down or depreciating in any way. The assessed valuation of personal and real estate is in round numbers about 15 millions of dollars, which is much below its real value and in there should be added one half millions of city property in that of benevolent institutions exempted from taxation, besides large amounts owned by our citizens in other places.

There has been a marked improvement in the class of cows, horses and cattle kept of late. Stock within the past few years will be of a much better class of horses and cattle. If you or any one else will be of a much better class of horses and cattle. If you or any one else will be of a much better class of horses and cattle. If you or any one else

My Big Fish

Three months ago I was a happy man. I had a charming wife, two handsome children, a comfortable income, a considerable practice, and (for a bachelor) a clear conscience. All but the last I still possess, but it is less of a comfort than it used to be, since the loss of that has left my happy home a place of misery and unsettled comfort. My wife's patience and yet I cannot but think that others were it exposed to me. When human beings yields to temptation he is said to fall, but that expression hardly applies to my case. I was regularly pushed over by other people. But I will tell my painful story, and the reader shall judge for himself.

My name is Marmaduke Howard Jones. My profession is that of a barrister, but I have not yet had occasion to use the knowledge of the law which I have acquired by my professional studies. However, as I have a little money, and not to any dissipated habits, I do not mean to suggest that I owe my escape the only losses I suffer there. I lost these other Marmadukes, but the ensemble the combination, Marmaduke Howard Jones, vir terre fatique robustus, has always been one possessing considerable intellectual merit and is doing great credit to my good fathers and godmothers. I state I read myself that the combination was at my inception, and personally never supposed, until I was 25 years old, that there was possible to be another individual, still less than one number of my own profession. Nothing in the very name of Jones could lead me to suppose that I was destined to be the only one of the name who ever will be known as a fisherman. Still less was it to be expected that the first Jones to be so known would be a Marmaduke. Yet so it is, and I am the only Marmaduke Howard Jones who ever will be known as a fisherman.

I am not a fisherman by choice. I am not a fisherman by nature. I am not a fisherman by habit. I am not a fisherman by profession. I am a fisherman by accident, and I am a fisherman by force of circumstances. I am a fisherman because I was born a fisherman, and I am a fisherman because I was born a fisherman. I am a fisherman because I was born a fisherman, and I am a fisherman because I was born a fisherman.
